Introducing Happy Hounds™ Pet Products

September 15, 2010 – Happy Hounds™ Pet Products has announced that their introduction to the national pet industry will occur at the H.H. Backer Christmas trade show in October 2010. This is the first time that buyers from around the nation will be able to view the entire line of Happy Hounds™ products publicly.

Happy Hounds™ manufactures high-quality, fashion pet products including dog beds, cat beds, crate pads, and dog lifejackets. Construction, style, and materials in every product are carefully considered for durability, comfort, modernity, and earth friendliness.

Every single Happy Hounds™ product is inspected in the USA for quality, and Happy Hounds™ also offers 100% Made in the USA products.

With an experienced design team, long-time relationships with suppliers, and streamlined manufacturing processes, Happy Hounds™ offers safe, stylish, comfy, and durable pet products at reasonable prices.

The line of Happy Hounds™ pet beds and lifejackets can be viewed in the New Exhibitor section, Booth 4858, at the H.H. Backer show from October 8-10, 2010, or contact info@happyhounds.net for more information.
